LIGNES de LUMIÈRE

This collection is inspired by the Art Deco style, where geometry becomes a language.

I designed these creations for women who move forward with confidence and express their style through pure, clean lines. More than jewelry, they are graphic pieces that elevate everyday life.

ABOUT

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a white textured cardigan and white trousers, stands in front of a rustic wooden door. The door is covered in numerous small, dark, round knobs or studs. She is holding a large, round, light-colored straw hat. The scene is set against a warm, reddish-brown wall, and the lighting is soft and golden, suggesting late afternoon or early morning. The ground is paved with cobblestones.

Pascale Lazzeri, founder of YLUME, has been passionate about design and creation from an early age. She spent nearly two decades in the cosmetics industry, including at L'Oréal and L'Occitane, where she refined her creative vision and expertise.

Deeply inspired by her travels—particularly to her native Corsica—and by the ever-changing beauty of light, she founded YLUME in 2018 with a simple ambition: to create jewelry that illuminates women and celebrates their natural radiance.
